Sports Celebrities to Tee off at Walking for Kids Pro-Am Golf Tournament
Annual fundraiser to benefit UCP of Central Florida

Orlando, Fla. (November 22, 2011) - D.J. Gregory's Walking for Kids Foundation will host a once in a lifetime opportunity on the green to play alongside notable sports celebrities during the 2nd annual Walking for Kids Pro-Am Golf Tournament to be held at Celebration Golf Club on Monday, December 5th. The Pro-Am, benefiting UCP of Central Florida, will tee off at a dinner and pairing party to be held at Buena Vista Hotel and Spa on Sunday, December 4th where amateurs will be matched with 25 sports celebrities including PGA professionals Lucas Glover, Spencer Levin and Steve Marino; MLB players Jermaine Dye, Troy Glaus and Ken Harrelson; and NFL stars Jimmy Giles, Fred Marion and Jerry Wunsch, among others.

Foundation founder, D.J. Gregory, who has cerebral palsy, started the event following his experience on the 2008 PGA Tour where he walked over 988 miles and followed 3,256 holes alongside the nation's finest golf competitors. The Walking for Kids Pro-Am Golf Tournament encompasses the same determination and passion to achieve miracles despite limitations.

65,000 Central Florida youth have at least one disability. UCP of Central Florida provides support, education, and therapy services for children, with and without disabilities, ages birth through 21. For online registration and sponsorship opportunities, visit www.ucpcf.org/events or contact Martha Mannarino at (407) 852-3352.
